GOALS AND RATIONALE

All students, regardless of their age, language or cultural background, require the opportunity to develop their potential to the fullest. While ELLs have much in common with other students, they have specific needs in the areas of language development and cultural adjustment. For many ELLs, the change in their situation requires additional support to help them develop more increasingly complex, sophisticated, and Independent School communication.

BIG IDEAS

Information is accessed for diverse purposes and from a variety of texts. Contextual academic language is essential for comprehension and to convey meaning in a variety of contexts. Effective communication includes exchanging ideas and viewpoints to share thinking. Understanding cultural context affects how we understand language. Acquisition of English and understanding Canadian culture increases opportunities to participate in the community. and to contribute to society
