

GRADE 10

Chumash 10

SD39 Vancouver

This course is designed to enable students to study Chumash and its commentaries. The text is studied in Hebrew, and students will be able to read, translate and understand passages from the text. Students will be able to analyze the text and identify narratives within the Chumash. Also, students will be able to glean values and life lessons from the text.

---

Credits: 2

Approval Date: Sep 2018

---

Hours: 60

Trax Code: YLOE

---

GOALS AND RATIONALE

The Old Testament, or Chumash, forms the foundation of, among other religions, Judaism. Consequently, it is important to study this text, its narrative and its lessons in order to properly grasp the values and obligations that the Jewish religion bestows upon its followers. This course teaches students the reading skills needed to study the Chumash, and to also read and analyze later commentaries. Analyzing sections of the Chumash and discovering its themes allows students to recognize narratives

---

BIG IDEAS

1. Narrative and story based learning 2. Proper communication between student and teacher and among peers is essential for learning. 3. Developing reading skills with special attention for detail. 4. The skill of applying previously learned knowledge to other situations.

---

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

N/A