

GRADE 12

Psychology 12

SD36 Surrey

Psychology 12 builds on the knowledge and tools gained in Psychology 11. The primary focus of this course is to extend students learning about human behaviour and mental processes across contexts, both private and public. It examines how theories have practical, real-life applications. The course is designed with university/college bound students in mind and includes lessons and discussions about how the study of Psychology can help one in the future.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The goal is to introduce students to the how and why of human thought and behaviour with an emphasis on regularly connecting what they have learned to their daily lives. With a student-centered approach, Psychology 12 allows students the chance to discuss, collaborate and present. Critical thinking is at the core of this class.
