

GRADE 10

Student Leadership

SD34 Abbotsford

The purpose of this course is to develop the communication, organization, and planning skills associated with being a leader in the school community. Students will use their leadership skills to develop and promote a positive school culture. Student will develop responsibility, self-esteem, initiative, and creativity throughout this course.

Credits: 4

Approval Date: May 2018

Hours: 120

Trax Code: YIPS

GOALS AND RATIONALE

Develop an awareness of different leadership styles. Develop and apply different leadership characteristics. Participate in and lead students in different school community building events. Develop positive relationships both within their class and in the school community. Contribute to a positive school climate. Develop an awareness of the positive aspects of mentorship while being mentored by a peer.

BIG IDEAS

Different situations require different styles of leadership Event planning requires leadership skills, patience and time Developing leadership skills allows us to positively influence our community True leadership development requires a knowledge of self and learning from the experiences of others Reflecting on experiences, growth opportunities, and personal successes and failures is an important part of being an effective leader.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Grade 10 students will work under the guidance and direction of Grade 11 and 12 Student Leadership students while helping to run different school-based events.