

Find an Expert/Experience

Some providers offer free sessions, and a schedule of events. Some sites offer teachers' guides. Some sessions are archived for offline use. Some offer sessions for a fee.

Visit the following links for session opportunities, ideas, and contacts. For some events you will need to register as a teacher to create a login, but no personal information. These are only a very few of the many options available to you and your students.

Royal BC Museum Learning Portal – <https://royalbcmuseum.bc.ca/learn/schoolprograms/digital-field-trips>

The museum offers Digital Field Trips for remote classrooms to view collections and find out about the work. Digital Field Trips are inquiry-based and staff-led. Contact them directly to develop your classroom's learning experience.

CILC – <http://cilc.org>

A great place to start, includes a searchable videoconference database of providers (most charge a fee, but some are free). The sessions are also rated by teachers and they publish a list the best each year – Pinnacle Award: <http://www.cilc.org/Resources/News/CILC-Pinnacle-Awards-Recipients-Announced.aspx>

Exploring by the Seat of Your Pants – <http://www.exploringbytheseat.com/>

Free sessions via Hangouts hosted by a teacher (Joe Grabowski) from Guelph, Ontario. Sessions are related to topics like conservation, oceans, adventure, etc. He hosts guest speakers from around the world and hosts similar sessions with National Geographic: <http://www.nationalgeographic.org/education/programs/explorer-classroom/>

NEPRIS – <https://www.nepris.com>

An organization that connects industry to the classroom (via Zoom) – great for career spotlights.

Microsoft Educator Centre – <https://education.microsoft.com/en-us/resource/d5b62e3e>
Microsoft offers online training for teachers: <https://www.microsoft.com/en-us/store/workshops-training-and-events/educators>
